Eight Cars Are Piled Up in DT&I Wreck

EIGHT GONDOLA CARS, six of them loaded with coal, of a 95-car DT&I freight train were derailed early Sunday morning about four miles south of Washington C. H. when a rail gave way. The string of steel cars twisted at crazy angles as shown in the TOP PHOTO. The end of one of the rails is shown rammed up through the middle of the car at the far right. In the BOTTOM PHOTO, crewmen from Springfield are shown with their mobile crane, lifting the huge cars and the 100-ton loads off the right of way in order for the rest of the crew to start work on relaying the 500 feet of track. ## Traffic Blocked 18 Hours As Crews Wrestle Wreckage

A wrecker crew from Springfield was busy all day Sunday clearing the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad tracks of eight gondola cars, which were derailed about four miles south of Washington C. H., shortly after midnight Sunday morning. No one was injured.

The eight cars included six loaded with coal and two empties, which were part of a 95-car freight train enroute from Jackson to Springfield.

The cause of the accident was a defective rail, according to railway officials.

The freight train, which was headed north, had just passed the crossing on the Bogus Road, near Good Hope, when the rail apparently gave way, ramming its end up through the middle of one of the coal cars.

About 70 cars had already passed over the spot. The eight derailed cars were near the end of the string of freight cars.

When the rail poked upward the huge steel cars were tossed at crazy angles along the right of way. A couple of the cars were tipped over, and others were thrown into the bank parallel to the track.

A WRECKER out of Springfield arrived at the scene of the accident about 8 A. M. Sunday to start clearing and repairing about 500 feet of track so that traffic could resume its schedule.

The overturned cars were dragged clear of the track with a huge crane. Crews repaired the torn-up section of the line.

Five of the coal-laden cars, containing about 335 tons of coal, had to be dumped along the side of the track. One of the loaded cars was retracted.

After working all day in the freezing weather, the crewmen were able to repair the track about 8 P. M. Sunday. The derailed cars and their cargo will be picked up later.

Traffic, Monday, was getting back to normal, following the all day tie-up.

Crippled Ship Still in Tow

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(P)—Unsinkable Capt. Kurt Carlsen and the Flying Enterprise were halfway to haven Monday. The tug Turmoil and the gale-crippled American freighter she is towing were reported 132 miles from the Cornish port of Falmouth. The tug hoped to make port sometime Wednesday.

Carlsen's heroic stand with his near-sinking vessel—which he refused to leave—had started some 300 miles west of the English coast, where the Flying Enterprise almost capsized in the worst Atlantic storm in 50 years.

The U. S. Destroyer Willard Keith, escorting the tug and her charge, reported the little convoy's 8 a. m. position and said "condition of Enterprise unchanged." The message said the weather was cloudy, with a light fog, the sea moderate with westerly swells, and visibility was three to six miles.

When 72 college students from two Ohio schools go to Mexico City College to study during the winter quarter, a Washington C. H. co-ed at Ohio State University probably will be one of them.

A bulletin from the university public relations department just received here said Miss Marie Riber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch O. Riber, was planning to go down south of the border to take some studies to supplement her regular college course.

The collegiate contingent will be under the supervision of Dr. James B. Tharp of Ohio State, who made all the arrangements.

The "Winter Quarter in Mexico" courses start Jan. 3 and continue for 11 weeks through March 19.

Eight of the students in the group are from Baldwin Wallace College and the rest from Ohio State.

Miss Riber is a junior at Ohio State. She was graduated from Washington C. H. High School in June of 1949.

Love of Little Radio Puts Man in Jail After Third Theft

EVANSTON, Ill., Jan. 7.—(P)—A table model radio sings a siren song to Norwood Hadley. It has crooned him into the toils of the law for the third time.

Hadley, 22, fell in love with the radio in an Evanston coal company's office, when he went to work there in July, 1948.

The radio disappeared. Detective Sigmund Wroblewski found it with Hadley and the youth confided his affection for it. Hadley was put on probation.

Seven months later, the radio vanished again. Wroblewski's memory was long. That time, Hadley was sent to the Pontiac, Ill., reformatory.

The same radio was missing again over the weekend. Wroblewski found its recovery no problem. He looked up Hadley and got this explanation:

"I've heard a lot of radio tones xxx but there's just no tone to equal that little radio. Even when in jail I was lonesome for it."

Man's Curiosity Is Nearly Fatal

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(P)—Samuel Masiello, 26, wondered what would happen if he touched the wires protruding from a small percussion cap he found in his basement to a dry cell battery.

Fordham Hospital reported Monday his condition was not serious despite the tiny metal fragments that had peppered his body.

tor Martin Niemoller.

Earlier Sunday night Niemoller, an influential West German religious leader visiting here this week as a guest of church officials, addressed a congregation of 2,000 Russian Baptists at the Moscow Evangelical Baptist Church.

At Yelokhovskaya Sobor several thousand persons trudged through the deep snow from all directions and came in street cars, buses, taxis and private cars. They filled the cathedral and overflowed into the street.

High above in a vaulted loft a choir sang. Among its many voice, one appeared to be that of Russia's great bass Mikhailov, a famous opera singer. Hundreds in the congregation joined in the songs.

Minister Is Robbed

CLEVELAND, Jan. 7.—(P)—Burglars ransacked his parish house and stole $100 Sunday while the Rev. Howard A. L. Grindon was conducting services at St. John's Episcopal Church.

THE CAUSE OF THE WRECK involving eight coal cars of the DT&I freight train early Sunday morning, was listed as a "tubed rail," by railway officials. The fissure in the rail is shown in the above photo. Officials said that the split in the rail is often caused by constant pounding of millions of tons of freight which passes over the rails every year. The rails are checked by a special set of instruments every year to find such weak spots, but some of the fissures don't show up until sometime later on.

Congress Is To Reconvene Tuesday In Atmosphere Heavy With Politics

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(P)—The 82nd Congress starts its election-year session Tuesday with politics likely to weigh heavily in all major actions.

The next six months are expected to bring forth decisions, one way or another, on such major matters as Universal Military Training, foreign military and economic aid, economic controls at home, and defense spending.

Leaders are hopeful the session can wind up in time for the July political conventions so members can go home afterward for the fall campaigns.

All House seats will be at stake in the November voting. So will 32 Senate seats, as well as the presidency and the vice-presidency.

Because of the approaching elections, observers generally expect the session to be marked more by talk than by action.

President Truman will blueprint his legislative program in his State-of-the-Union Message Wednesday.

THAT WILL be followed by two more messages, one on economics and the other transmitting a federal budget expected to exceed $80 billion for the year starting July 1. Mr. Truman's State-of-the-Union message is to be sent out on all available network facilities, both radio and television. It will be the first time for such an event in coast to coast TV.

The President is expected to begin speaking at 12:30 p. m. when the radio networks come on, continuing approximately 45 minutes. The TV will start at 12:15 to picture preliminary activities.

Both subcommittees will meet again Monday night.

Joy told newsmen his conference with Ridgway would cover only routine matters.

"There is no change in truce negotiations at Panmunjom to prompt this visit," he said.

Four Friends See Man Shoot Wife And Then Kill Self with Same Gun

GREENFIELD, Jan. 7.—(P)—Four persons saw a man shoot to death his estranged wife, then kill himself on a roadside near the Fort Hill State Park Saturday night.

They told authorities that George E. Bryant, 42, of Peebles dragged his 22-year-old wife, Mary Ruth, down the road by the hair and shot her twice in the chest and once in the head. Then he shot himself behind the ear and died.

Coroner J. M. Byers ruled the deaths were murder and suicide.

The witnesses were Orville Shields, 18, Mrs. Bryant's brother; Mrs. Alma Hayslip, 15, her sister; Chester Rolle, 22, and Little Kirk, 16, all of Peebles.

They gave Dr. Byers and Sheriff F. F. Gustin of Highland County this account of the shootings:

Bryant, driving around Peebles with Miss Kirk, saw his wife, from whom he had separated two weeks ago, in a car with Toole, Shields and Mrs. Hayslip.

Bryant stopped at his home and got a revolver, then followed the car in which his wife was riding. He told Miss Kirk they would "have some fun."

He drove up behind the other car, driven by Toole, and locked bumpers with it. Both cars stopped.

Mrs. Bryant walked to her husband's car and started arguing with Miss Kirk.

Toole and Shields separated the women, but Bryant hit Toole on the head with the butt of his gun.

Shields said: "George dragged Mary down the highway, beat her to her knees with his gun, and then fired at her three times. As she fell to the ground he put the gun to his own head and pulled the trigger. Then everything was quiet."

The couple had no children, but Mrs. Bryant had two small children by a former marriage.

Do Reds Want Truce? Indications They Don't; Air War Is Resumed

MUNSAN, Jan. 7.—(P)—The United Nations' chief truce negotiator said Monday there are growing indications the Communists do not want a stable armistice in Korea.

Monday's report from Panmunjom was the now familiar "no progress."

If the Communists "are acting in good faith and sincerely want peace, there can be no reason for them to construct military airfields during the period of an armistice," said Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy. He flew to Tokyo for conferences with Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme Allied commander.

"If, on the other hand, the Communists are acting in bad faith and are, in fact, preparing for war, the construction of military airfields becomes, and is, a matter of great urgency to them," Joy added.

The Reds reiterated their insistence on the right to construct and repair airfields during a brief Monday meeting of the subcommittee on truce supervision.

The session ended abruptly after Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang accused the Allies of "intentionally delaying the negotiations" and trying to wreck the truce talks by insisting on prohibiting construction of military air bases.

Communist delegates again rejected a six-point Allied plan for exchanging prisoners of war and civilians.

Rear Adm. R. E. Libby promptly submitted the plan again, and again explained it in detail.

North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee Sang Cho listened to Libby's explanation then commented: "No matter how eloquently you describe it, we cannot accept your proposal."

Both subcommittees will meet again Monday night.

Joy told newsmen his conference with Ridgway would cover only routine matters.

"There is no change in truce negotiations at Panmunjom to prompt this visit," he said.

Just how much the President will request for foreign aid of all types is not known. Last year he asked for $8.5 billion and Congress cut that by more than $1 billion. Proportionately, a bigger slash appears likely this year.

About $50 billion of the President's new budget is reported to involve defense outlays.

No Wedding Like This in America

ORMOND BEACH, Fla., Jan. 7.—(P)—The 15-year-old bride was shy and tearful—after all, she had never seen the groom before—but she was faultlessly dressed for the big moment in her life.

It was the royal Gypsy wedding of the son of Mike Davis, "king" of Romanian tribes in Florida, and hundreds of Sunday motorists had a ringside seat as the tribe turned on the music and wound up two days of celebration with the nuptials.

After the brief ceremony, she retired to the semi-seclusion of a trailer awning while the groom joined other teenagers at a blaring juke box and apparently forgot about the whole thing.

The marriage between John Davis, 16, and pretty, bespangled Katherine Johnson of Baltimore, had been arranged by their fathers more than 10 years ago.

Gypsy custom, said the bride's father, demands that the bargain be carried out.

The couple met for the first time at the head of a feast table. A few words in dialect, a blessing followed by a burst of laughter, and the ceremony was over.

"No ceremony like it in America," said a tribesman. "Just an expression of good words from everybody and they are married."

Gaily attired Gypsy notables came from all over Florida and other states for the big day, bringing many gifts for the bride and groom.

General Open To Draft, but Won't Campaign

Chief of SHAPE Is Republican, He Says in Statement

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower proclaimed himself a Republican Monday and made it clear he would accept that party's presidential nomination if it is offered. But he said he won't actively seek it.

In a Paris statement, the 61-year old general swept away much of the fog of uncertainty that has swirled for the last five years about his place in the picture of presidential possibilities.

His statement was prompted by the weekend move from Senator Lodge (R-Mass) who announced (a) that Eisenhower's name would be entered in the March 11 New Hampshire presidential primary, and (b) that there would be a "finish fight" to win the GOP nomination for the general.

Eisenhower, who has been talked as both a Democratic and Republican presidential possibility, made these main points in his statement:

1. He said Lodge was correct in calling him a Republican.

2. He has no intention of asking that he be relieved of his present assignment as leader of the European defense forces.

3. He will not take part in pre-convention activities of those seeking the nomination for him.

4. He recognizes the right of others to engage in an attempt "to place before me next July (when the Republican convention meets) a duty that would transcend my present responsibility."

SHOULD Eisenhower be elected President, he would be the ninth general to occupy the White House and the second West Pointer. Gen. Ulysses S. Grant was the only West Point graduate to become President.

Eisenhower retired from the Army in 1948 to take the post of president of Columbia University, but he continued as a military adviser.

"As long as I am above ground," he said then, "I am never going to leave the Army."

Eisenhower's statement Monday tremendously cheered Republicans who have been working for his nomination and have felt themselves handicapped by the general's long silence.

Some of them were getting restive under the feeling that uncertainty as to Eisenhower's position was letting Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, first to announce as a candidate, get off to a long lead in bidding for support from convention delegates.

The "go ahead" which Eisenhower in effect gave his backers will let them press their campaign for him with more assurance.

Two other candidates also are formally in the race—Gov. Earl Warren of California and Harold Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania and former governor of Minnesota.

Farm Worker Is Shot Battling City Police

COLUMBUS, Jan. 7.—(P)—The only explanation Oscar Roe, 40, offered Sunday night for an hour-long gun battle with police and sheriff's deputies was: "I was protecting my property."

That's what Roe, who was wounded four times by police bullets, told Lt. Wayne G. Miller who questioned him in a Columbus hospital.

All the excitement started when sheriff's deputies, cruising past Roe's house, heard a gunshot and saw their car's red light shattered.

The deputies didn't know where the shot came from, so they radioed for help. As officers assembled around the cruiser car, another shot was fired at them.

They saw Roe run to his three-room cottage. When the officers approached the house, Roe shot at them through the doorway.

Police fired back at Roe, but he refused to come out until a tear gas bomb set his house afire.

Then he ran next door, where Detective Kenneth Anderson finally grabbed him from behind and disarmed him.

No officers were injured, but Patrolman William O. Born's uniform blouse was torn by one of Roe's bullets.

Neighbors said Roe, a farm laborer, had never caused a trouble before.

The action of board members was unanimous in the selections. County Auditor Ulric Acton automatically remains as clerk of the board.

THE WISSLER ROAD in Paint and Madison townships, and which also extends into Range Township in Madison County, was again up for discussion before the commissioners on Monday morning.

Representatives of the two boards of trustees in the two townships in this county and a number of landowners along the road were in the conference.

Landowners are seeking improvement of the road, extending for approximately 1.8 miles in this county.

A general agreement was reached that this is to remain a town-

Large Turn-out At Service Here

Women Take Over At Grace Church

More than 380 persons attended the special services held by the ladies of the Women's Society of Christian Service at the Grace Methodist Church on Sunday.

While Rev. Allan W. Caley, the pastor sat with the congregation, more than 50 members of the society took over the entire morning worship period.

Mrs. C. L. Lewellen spoke on "Secularism and Christianity." The topic and idea for the service came out of a conference on Christianity and secularism held in Columbus in November, to which Mrs. Lewellen was a delegate.

The speaker pointed out her message by saying, "Lines are drawn between religion and irreligion. The biggest threat to Christianity is to be found in secularism. Secularism is the free act of things that obscure: the face of God, invades our living and cancels out the spiritual: it gives emphasis to the physical and material and moves the spiritual into a position of non importance," she said.

CONTINUING, SHE declared. "The alternative to Christianity in our day is the labor union, PTA, afternoon bridge, television, movies, sports and a hundred other interests that are good, but they obscure our need of God. Secularism holds that man can work out his own salvation without the hold of a higher power."

The following persons, all members of the WSCS, assisted in conducting the various parts of the service:

Hostesses: Mrs. Harold Craig, Mrs. Charles McCoy, Mrs. George B. Stitt, Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Mrs. Jess Feagans, Mrs. Ed Fite and Mrs. A. R. Senter.

Offering: Mrs. Kenneth Bangs, Miss Arlene Smith, Mrs. Marvin Thornburg, Mrs. Robert Hook, Mrs. Emory Lynch and Mrs. Gilbert Crouse.

Choir: Mrs. Fred Coffman, Mrs. O. E. Bonnell, Mrs. William Clarke, Mrs. Wayne Woodard, Mrs. Billie Wilson, Mrs. Webber French, Mrs. George O'Brian, Mrs. Leonard Korn, Mrs. Oran Ellis, Mrs. Fred Enslin, Mrs. Wilbert Campbell, Mrs. John Weade, Mrs. Clark Crawford, Mrs. John Rhoads, Mrs. Ellis Bishop, Mrs. Loretta Hynes, Mrs. G. B. Vance, Mrs. Jean Nissley, Miss Charlene Mark, Miss Diana Bathurst, Miss Linda Lovell, Miss Marian Moore, Miss Katie Bower, Miss Jane Trent and Miss Jean Everhart.

The director of the choir was Mrs. George Pensyl and Jowanda and Juliana Wilson were the acolytes.

Funeral Services For Jesse Coil

Funeral services for Jesse Coil were held at 1:30 P. M. Saturday at the Kirkpatrick-Funeral Home here.

Rev. Emri Sites, pastor of the Sugar Creek Baptist Church, conducted the services. He was assisted by Rev. John Duffy of Wilmington.

Rev. Sites read passages from the Scriptures and delivered the funeral sermon. Rev. Duffy offered prayer.

Two hymns were sung by Eldon Luttrell. Miss Edith Haines played the accompaniment.

The pallbearers, who also cared for the floral remembrances, were Frank, Roy and Noah Carr, Edward Coil, Stanley Chaffin and Carl Mickel. Interment was in the Washington Cemetery.

Mrs. Minnie Flesher Resigns Post Here

Mrs. Minnie Flesher, who has been engaged in relief work here since 1934, has resigned her position with the Fayette County public assistance department, effective Feb. 1.

She has been with the public assistance department for a number of years, and has proven highly efficient in her work.

Mrs. Flesher and her husband will move to Cincinnati early in February to make their future home.

Final Tributes Are Paid J. M. Willis

Final tributes were paid to J. M. Willis when relatives and old friends gathered at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home here Saturday at 3 P. M. for simple but impressive funeral services.

Rev. J. Harold Braden, who conducted the services, offered prayer, delivered a funeral sermon based on the Scriptures and read a memorial tribute written by Joseph H. Harper, a lifelong friend.

The flowers that banked the casket were mute testimonials of the esteem and affection in which he was held.

The casket was borne to its final resting place in the family lot in the Bloomingburg Cemetery by John Jefferson of Indianapolis, Willard Perrill, Howard S. Harper, Arch O. Riber, Dr. Paul S. Craig and Claude C. Hummell of Columbus.

Infant Baby Dies At Hospital Here

Sharon Lynn Beedy, six-day-old daughter of Pfc. and Mrs. Isaac Gene Beedy Jr., the latter of near Bloomingburg, died at 5 P. M. Sunday in Memorial Hospital.

The father, Pfc. Beedy, is serving with the Second Division in Korea.

Besides the parents, the baby is survived by its maternal grand parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Floyd Leach of the Dennis Road near Bloomingburg, and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Beedy Sr. of Washington C. H. and several aunts and uncles.

Graveside services will be held in the Washington Cemetery at 10:30 A. M. on Tuesday, with Rev. Henry C. Leeth, pastor of the Washington Avenue House of Prayer, in charge.

The Hook and Son Funeral Home is handling the arrangements.

Charles Rodgers Rites Are Read

Do Reds Want Truce

U. S. Air Force will announce any losses only once a week.

Allied ground forces on the western front fought fiercely in sub-freezing weather toward a prize outpost 1st to the Reds Dec. 28.

United Nations infantrymen made slight gains against stubborn Chinese resistance early Monday after hurling back two Red thrusts Sunday. The outpost is west of Korangpo and only about six miles from Panmunjom—site of the deadlocked armistice talks.

At sea, Allied warships maintained their tight blockade of both the east and west Korean coasts. Carrier planes hammered Communist coastal supply routes and cut east-west rail routes in 199 places.

The U. S. Navy announced Sunday that its ships and planes in 1951 destroyed or damaged 7,028 railway cars or locomotives, 4,519 Communist motor vehicles, 2,379 bridges and cut rail lines 4,674 times.

Mrs. Ruby Matson Rites Are Held

Farewell services for Mrs. Ruby Matson were held Saturday at 1:30 P. M. at the Christian Union Church on Gregg Street, and were conducted by Rev. Russell Knisley, assisted by Rev. Cecil Rice. Rev. Rice read the memoir and offered prayer.

Rev. Knisley offered prayer, paid a personal tribute to Mrs. Matson, and delivered the sermon.

The choir sang "Beyond the Sunset", "Till Live On", and "Some Golden Daybreak", with Mrs. Wilbur Knisley at the piano. Mrs. Knisley also played the prelude and postlude.

Interment was made in the Washington C. H. Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Hugh Matson, Arthur Matson, Edward Hidy, Paul Stewart, Bernard Matson and Neil Matson.

Ike Would Accept

Another practical effect of Ike's statement was to pull the rug from under those Democrats who have been beating the drums for the nomination of Eisenhower by their party. One New Hampshire group had planned to enter Ike's name in the Democratic primary.

At the White House, aides said President Truman had no comment on the general's statement.

Lodge, when saying Sunday that Eisenhower's name would be entered in the GOP New Hampshire primary, conceded he had no direct authorization from the general to take that step.

Apparently, however, Lodge had reason to expect some early statement from Eisenhower. The 22-hour wait, before the statement actually was issued, seemingly was longer than the senator anticipated.

Lodge asserted that the European commander's willingness to enter the primary "is assurance that he is a candidate."

Lodge said Eisenhower's assurance that he was a Republican came more than a year ago while Ike was still serving as president of New York's Columbia University.

French and other Western European officials and diplomats in Paris interpreted Lodge's statement as virtually a definite indication that Eisenhower is prepared to run for the presidency on the Republican ticket.

THEY DID NOT believe that Lodge would make such a statement without some private authorization from Ike. Furthermore, they felt that Eisenhower's past silence with respect to the activities of Lodge, GOP Sen. Duff of Pennsylvania and other American political supporters constituted his virtual consent.

Some top-ranking European and Allied officials had no hesitancy in expressing the private hope that Ike will run and be elected.

There are two major reasons for European Allied leaders generally favoring Eisenhower:

1. Fear and uncertainty over Sen. Taft's foreign policy, especially his willingness to support continued large-scale American economic and military aid to Europe.

2. A certain lack of confidence on the part of Western European governments in the Truman administration's methods in handling leadership of the Western world.

Here is text of Ike's statement:

"Senator Lodge's announcement of Sunday as reported in the press gives an accurate account of the general tenor of my political convictions and of my Republican voting record. He was correct also in stating that I would not seek nomination to political office.

"I have frequently and publicly expressed my refusal to do so.

"My convictions in this regard have been reinforced by the character and importance of the duty which I was charged more than a year ago by our country and the other nations of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, America's enlightened self-interest and the future of Western civilization alike demand success in our collective effort to produce security against Communistic threat and to preserve peace.

"Under no circumstances will I ask for relief from this assignment in order to seek nomination to political office and I shall not participate in the pre-convention activities of others who may have such an intention with respect to me.

"Of course there is no question of the right of American citizens to organize in pursuit of their common convictions. I realize that Senator Lodge and his associates are exercising this right in an attempt to place before me next July a duty that would transcend my present responsibility. In the absence, however, of a clear-cut call to political duty I shall continue to devote my full attention and energies to the performance of the vital task to which I am assigned."

Grain Market

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Grain and soybean futures prices slumped Monday through profit-taking sales and lack of demand.

Wheat, corn and soybeans were down two cents a bushel or more at times. Oats were off more than a cent most of the session. There was a rally near the close, however.

Disappointment over lack of export news caused a lack of demand for wheat after an opening buying flurry. There also were reports that export buying by Germany and Japan had been postponed.

Home Building Curbs Tightened

Metal Shortage One of Reasons

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 —(INS)—The government is expected to announce next week tighter controls on home building and other construction operations to make way for greater defense production in 1952.

National Production Authority officials have summoned 29 building industry leaders to a Washington meeting Wednesday for a full-dress discussion of the entire construction situation.

Indications are that NPA will order a further reduction in the use of copper in home building and the agency probably will order new aluminum restrictions to meet heavily rising military demands.

The Wednesday meeting takes on some significance for these reasons:

1. NPA has not consulted with the industry as a group since last July when the construction controls program was completely overhauled and generally tougher regulations were imposed to save materials for defense production.

2. NPA scheduled the conference at the same time Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson was telling the auto industry it would have to take a 20 per cent cutback in car production next April because of the severe shortage of copper and aluminum.

Wilson's announcement carried a warning that the construction industry and manufacturers of refrigerators, washing machines and other consumer durable goods would share the plight of the auto makers.

The agenda of the Wednesday building meeting includes discussion of the present construction situation, the outlook for 1952 and the workings of the controlled materials plan.

NPA also wants to take up "proposed changes in construction orders and regulations" and "processing criteria" which could have considerable effect on all construction operations.

Meanwhile, NPA is telling industry men that supplies of electrical construction materials will be scarcer in the first three months of this year than in any previous quarter.

In addition, agency officials estimate that the shortage of aluminum will not improve until mid-1953 because military demands are now increasing at the rate of approximately 70 million pounds a month.

NPA told a recent meeting with manufacturers of building hardware that "because of the pyramiding military requirements (for guided missiles, fuses, delivering projectiles, and for new uses which are being developed continually), it is doubtful that allotments of aluminum for the production of consumer-type goods, such as builders hardware, can be increased appreciably for at least another 18 months."

Celebration Held For New Library

BARRHEAD, Alta. —(P)—Opening of a new library is usually a cut-and-dried affair but the youngsters really whooped it up in this small community north of Edmonton. More than 1,300 students and many parents attended the official opening of the second regional library in Alberta.

Twenty-six school buses brought them to the modern Barrhead school. They swarmed through the corridors, inspected the art exhibits, had their fill of hot dogs and soft drinks and heard speeches by government officials. It was topped off by a program of basketball, boxing, tumbling, movies and dancing. Persons who attended the opening bought library memberships at $1 each. The money will be used to expand the original stock of books.

Waste in Military Spending To Be Displayed before Bosses

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 — (P)—Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) reports the House Armed Services Committee is getting ready to call military leaders on the carpet for wasteful buying.

He said a subcommittee headed by Rep. Herbert (D-La.) will begin hearing soon to find out why the Army, Navy and Air Force often pay different prices for identical items in common use.

Committee investigators are preparing what they call "a chamber of horrors" aimed to show the military brass how their purchasing agents and systems are costing the taxpayers millions of dollars needlessly.

They have assembled already a mass of exhibits of "horrible examples." And they told reporters: "There will be more coming."

The display at present shows: Ten-penny nails which the Navy bought for 6 cents a pound, the Army Engineers for 8 cents and the Air Force for 12 cents.

Heavy duty electric extension cords, all made from identical manufacturing drawings, for which the Army Engineers paid $13 and the Army Ordnance Corps only $6.32.

Pillows which the Army bought for one dollar; a six-inch larger type which cost the Navy $1.15, and another type for which the Medical Department paid $2.95.

An olive drab blanket the Army bought for $8.56, a white one purchased by the Medical Department for $21.75, and another which General Services Administration bought for 4.65.

Light bulbs of 25 watts which the Army bought for 11 cents, the Medical Department for 13 cents, and the Signal Corps for 37 cents.

Steel carpenter's squares bought by the Army engineers for $1.48 and by the Transportation Corps for $4.35.

Dimes Campaign Is Proclaimed

Gov. Lausche Urges People To Lend Aid

Gov. Frank J. Lausche said today "the hope and health and happiness of countless American youngsters and adults threatened by the grim visitation of polio" depends upon success of the 1952 March of Dimes fight against polio.

In a proclamation designating January as "March of Dimes Month," Lausche called upon "each and every citizen to join in helping to assure the success of the 1952 March of Dimes fight against polio."

"The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis... requires the utmost public support if its great work is to continue," the proclamation continued. "The 1952 March of Dimes takes place January 2-31, during which time the national foundation will ask for and deserve generous voluntary contributions from the people of our state and the entire nation."

Gov. Lausche pointed out in his proclamation that the national foundation spent $79,000,000 in March of Dimes funds for patient care alone in the last four years, "considerably in excess of the $41,000,000 expended for the same purpose during the entire preceding decade."

The March of Dimes campaign here is in charge of William Lovell. It opened here with a parking meter campaign, and with miniature iron lungs being placed in downtown business establishments.

More Desert Must Be Reclaimed To Maintain Standard of Living

By DAVID A. HELLER

TRACY, California—One hundred years ago geographers labeled millions of acres of arid land between the Mississippi valley and the Pacific coast as the "Great American Desert."

Today some of the most fruitful land in the world lies in this "desert," a miracle made possible by water.

The Federal Bureau of Reclamation has announced that value of crops from federally irrigated lands broke all records in 1950, and prospects for 1951 look even better.

MORE THAN 16 million tons of food and forage valued at $580 million were produced from irrigated lands in 1950. The astonishing total of over seven billion dollars' worth of crops has been harvested from lands watered by federal projects since the Bureau of Reclamation began irrigating western lands in 1906.

Much of this money comes from forage crops, even though seven billion dollars "ain't hay." Irrigation projects have become the biggest thing on the rangeland out side of Hopalong Cassidy.

The value of farm crops harvested from desert areas during the past 45 years is over three and a half times as much as the entire federal investment in reclamation work, Secretary of the Interior Oscar Chapman announced.

MOREOVER, the program includes development of hydro-electric power, flood control, recreation, and fish and wildlife benefits as well as irrigation, he said.

Sixteen states—California, Oklahoma, Oregon, Texas, South Dakota, Montana, North Dakota, New Mexico, Washington, Colorado, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Idaho and Nebraska—are covered by the Reclamation bureau's 62 projects.

Most spectacular of the projects is the newly-opened Central Valley project of California. Last year it yielded crops valued at $102 million, more than any other. More than 500,000 acres of "desert" were added to the nation's irrigated lands, and water is provided for the addition of another half million acres.

In dedicating the Central Valley project here at Tracy, Secretary Chapman emphasized need for reclaiming America's arid land if we are to maintain our standard of living.

"THE BUREAU of the Census forecasts that we shall have a population of 190 million people by 1975," he said. "That means if we are to continue to live as well as we do now—and of course we hope to live a great deal better—we shall have to increase our crop lands by about 99 million acres during the next 24 years."

Many other nations are sending engineers to America to study our progress in irrigating dry lands, seeking to carry our modern methods back to their own countries. Some are from nations which have used irrigation for thousands of years.

Secretary Chapman observed: "Many of the overcrowded countries where poverty is rife lie in arid or semi-arid regions of the earth. In some places, large numbers of people are literally starving within reach of soil and water which, if put to use by modern science, could give them a better living."

Mail to Congress Shows Public Shocked

A Washington C. H. attorney, a few days ago, was heard to say that probably nothing since the last world war, with the possible exception of the Korean conflict, has so thoroughly rocked the country as the federal government graft and corruption scandals of the past several months.

This seems to be substantiated by reports that the contents of congressional mail from the folks back home has indicated widespread feeling that the public is revolted and shocked.

The new Democratic national chairman recently said that he is sure the scandals will not be an issue of the 1952 campaign, on the grounds that the president and other Democrats are handling the situation and will clean it up neatly and in short order. This, in the view of most observers is an extreme case of "whistling in the dark."

Graft charges in the national administration, and a feeling that the surface of the trouble hardly has been scratched, is showing that too many people in key administration jobs are directly or indirectly involved.

A junior Republican senator, Williams of Delaware, who cracked open the tax frauds has seen to it that the investigations kept going. And it is an interesting fact that some Democrats who have done valiant work on behalf of high ethical standards in government—such as Senators Kefauver and Douglas—are persona non grata at the White House.

The reaction of the American press to the scandals has been one of anger—just as was the case with the scandals of the Harding administration. As a general rule, the editorial attitude has been "turn the rascals out." This has been buttressed by most of the columnists, who are taking a similar line. And on the factual side, coverage of the news by both press and radio has been excellent.

The big thing, of course, has been the graft in the Internal Revenue Bureau. This has completely overshadowed the deep freeze and mink coat episodes, and for an excellent reason. As one writer put it, "We cannot understand a billion here, a billion there, because so few of us deal in billions that they just represent a long line of zeros. We cannot understand the deviations of the state department. The good Lord knows we cannot understand what has transpired with prices and ceilings and OPA economics in general, because it is appearing to be a solid cinch the people who perpetrate them do not understand them, either."

Everyone kicks at the tax collector as a matter of course, but everyone has believed that the Department of Internal Revenue was as honest as they come. Now that some high officials of that bureau have taken on the smell of an ancient fish, the general public has turned whopping mad.

On the level of general principle, it seems certain that many millions of average Americans feel like Holmes Alexander, who wrote, "No tramp of a foreign invader has so shaken the temple of our freedom like the stealthy tread of thieves who are still at large within the government. And unless we wake up to these dangers, the Communist dream of decaying democracy can become our own nightmare."

If the moon breaks up, as an astronomer predicts, what can it be said then that visionary people are reaching for?

Church Saved Hundreds in Storm

NEW YORK—(AP)—A young nun today told how the stone walls of an old parish church saved hundreds of lives during a typhoon that laid waste much of the Philippines last month.

The temple, the most terrible in the memory of the islanders, was described by Sister Maria Constancia Pena in a letter of appeal to the Rev. Ulic Arcand, apostolic missionary of the Philippines rehabilitation in St. Paul, Minn.

"The sight of the debris is very sickening, it can drive you crazy if you don't stop thinking about it," she wrote.

Sister Maria Constancia is a teacher in Assumption College in Guayan, a town of 28,700 population on the Island of Samar in the hard-hit Central Philippines.

She said the fury of battering winds and tidal waves had left almost the entire population of the town homeless, penniless, and without proper food or clothing. Scores of other towns are in the same plight.

"Guian now is like Manila after the liberation—all in ruins," she wrote.

"Ninety-five per cent of the houses were carried into the Pacific by the angry waves or crushed down in total ruin. All our eight big Quonset huts which the U. S. Army left in 1945 were totally destroyed. . . not a post standing."

And then she described how the stone wall of a centuries-old church shielded hundreds "as a fortress."

"We sisters couldn't stay standing up during the great disaster, for the walls were falling, and the roofs flying," her letter continued. The nuns joined town-people who had crowded by the hundreds into the parish church.

"Men, women, children, and babies were there—crying, shouting, praying, moaning with pain on account of the windows and doors of the church being blown down and hitting people. Broken window glass flew over our heads."

Torrential rains and a 135-mile-an-hour wind filled the church with a thick fog, although it was daylight, she said, adding:

"That time was the crisis—from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. We couldn't see each other because of the fog, and nothing could be heard but the roaring of the winds and the cries of pain."

"Groups of people were blown away. I myself was blown and dragged off by the winds from the sanctuary to the sacristy. I tried hard to return near the altar, but the winds seem to have pasted me to the sacristy wall. We were all wet for hours and hours."

When the storm at last subsided, the survivors emerged to find their homes destroyed, many relatives dead beneath the wreckage or swept out to sea. Noting with a sore heart that "among the casualties were many of our 1,600 students," Sister Maria Constancia wrote:

"We have to begin from scratch again."

Prospects for Next Congress

The second session of the 82nd Congress which now meets is not likely to be productive of great legislative measures; yet it may prove to be one of the most important in our history.

President Truman has lost the leadership of his party. His so-called "program," a medley of socialistic and class measures, designed to catch blue votes, will not even get a hearing. The economic fantasies of his economic adviser, Leon Keyserling, have whiffed off into the cloudy miasma whence they came. The Democratic leadership in the Senate is no longer unified. It is each man for himself—particularly those senators who require reelection.

In the House, the confusion is equally general. The success of Congressman Cecil King's subcommittee in uncovering corruption whetted many an appetite for similar service and acclaim. There is likely to be committee competition in this field.

In the Senate, the Republicans remain under the leadership of Senator Robert A. Taft, except that the Eisenhower contingent, particularly those who are vice-presidential hopefuls, will seek to clip Taft's wings. They will be treated without too much courtesy as the convention approaches. The stalwarts of Republican new dealism, Duff of Pennsylvania, Lodge and Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Morse of Oregon, and Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, who will find little comfort within their own party, no matter how much praise they get among the intellectual hill-billies of Park Avenue.

It will be a tough, noisome Congress. The McCarran committee is the one to watch most keenly. It has the goods. Owen Lattimore's testimony will have to be tested against the files taken from E. C. Carter's barn. John Carter Vincent will have an opportunity to testify in January. Before this committee is through with its work, several great American reputations will be tarnished if not wrecked. On the constructive side, this committee will have established the Russian pattern of infiltration into our government.

Next in importance will be the hearings before the Gillette committee into Senator William Benton's charges against Senator Joe McCarthy. To the Democrats, Senator Benton's charges are a political headache because they may result in a Republican victory in Connecticut. The hearing centers on Senator McCarthy's Wheeling (W. Va.) speech and the mixed testimony as to what he actually said. Senator McCarthy is using this investigation to win in Wisconsin.

The burden of taxes, while some evade them, has proved embarrassing to many members of Congress, particularly those who went home during the Christmas holidays. Without regard to partisanship, those members of the Senate or House who come up for re-election cannot vote for increased taxes. Most of them will have to make some reasonable and articulate evidence that they favor not only punishment for fraud and tax evasions, but the collection of money due. For obviously, the rest of us pay more because some do not pay enough and some not at all.

The president will probably fight off any investigation by a congressional committee of actual income tax returns. To so-called practical politicians it will not be so important that the returns should actually be examined as that they should propose that it should be done. It is believed, in Washington, that many important persons have made only nominal returns. Therefore, this issue becomes strictly political in an election year.

Meanwhile, Representative Frederic E. Coudert, Jr., will introduce two measures which, if they are not treated with consideration, will become campaign issues. One measure will be "to assist individuals to provide financial security upon retirement and to make provisions for surviving members of their families by allowing an income tax deduction for premiums paid on annuity and life insurance contracts."

This is the sanest and most generally fair measure to assist the "white collar class" and provide for their obsolescence, as the obsolescence of machines is already provided for. Is not a man as worthy as a machine? The measure will not require anyone to join a union, guild or association, as Senator Ives and Representative Coudert proposed last year upon investigation of a bar association committee.

The other measure is designed:

"First: to compel the establishment of a balanced budget for 1953 based upon the present high tax rates; and

"Second: Take a first step in the direction of reduction in annual expenditures to the end that intolerable tax rates may be presently reduced and a beginning made in reduction of the national debt."

It would limit expenditures to $71,000,000,000, no matter who wants to spend more, and for whatever reason. Copyright 1951, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Diet and Health Gets More Attention

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Cortisone and ACTH have recently been successful in relieving severe attacks of gout, the painful inflammation that has plagued man so long.

With the growing importance of other diseases, people do not hear so much about gout these days, and many believe it is disappearing. This is a mistaken belief. Estimates tell us that at least five percent of patients going to specialists for rheumatic diseases of the bones and joints really have gout.

Another erroneous belief is that gout is a result of living "too well," and the well-fed sufferer is sometimes considered a comic character. However, doctors have long recognized that gout attacks both the rich and the poor and is no joke, although those who overindulge are more likely to contract this condition. This disease, which so closely resembles rheumatoid arthritis, deserves more respect and attention.

It is true that certain foods, such as liver, rare meat, wine, etc., sometimes bring on a sudden attack, but these are not the real causes of the disease. Gout is really the result of faulty metabolism of uric acid. A certain level of uric acid is normal in the blood, but the person with gout has more than the normal amount. This excess acid produces deposits around the joints, causing arthritis.

Recognizing Gout

A doctor can usually recognize the disease from deposits around the outer ear. These are formed from a salt of uric acid, and are seen as yellow, raised spots, the size of a pinhead.

The big toe is the part of the body first attacked in about 70 percent of the patients with this disorder. Gout can affect any joint, however, except the hips, shoulders, and spine. The area becomes swollen, inflamed and intensely painful, and the surrounding skin turns a violet color. A sudden attack lasts from two to fourteen days, then usually passes off by itself.

Gout is mostly a disease of the male, only from three to five percent of all cases occurring in women. A tendency toward the condition may be hereditary in some way. A laboratory test of the uric acid in the blood is the usual method of diagnosis, excess acid showing that the person is suffering from gout.

It is usual to put the patient with gout on a strict diet, free from rich foods and alcohol. Besides cortisone and ACTH, a drug known as colchicine has been effective in relieving the disorder.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

M. S.: What causes a head pain on coughing?

Answer: This is probably caused by increased pressure of the fluid that flows in the spinal canal which occurs when the person coughs. It might also be due to a sinus infection.

An examination is needed to find the exact cause.

Sir Samuel Baker, British explorer, was appointed governor of African Sudan in the early 1870's by the Egyptian khedive.

Church's 2 Priests Are Both Barred

YOUNGSTOWN, Jan. 7—(AP)—

There's no shortage of priests at the Nativity of Christ Russian Orthodox Church in Youngstown. They have two. But, neither is allowed to preach or celebrate church sacraments.

The predicament stems from a church squabble that began Oct. 28 when several parishioners led the Rev. Constantine Kassatkin from the church as he was preparing to preach his Sunday sermon. The Rev. Peter Vederko was named in place of Rev. Mr. Kassatkin.

Then the congregation decided to vote to settle finally who the church priest would be. Father Kassatkin won 41-34.

That should have settled it—but it didn't. Father Kassatkin had been deposed by the archbishop of the church in the U. S. The deposition meant he no longer was a clergyman.

So, neither he nor Father Vederko can preach in the church. A court injunction granted last month prevents the latter from doing so.

Pending a final decision of the case in court Monday, the 115 church-goers have been served by two other priests, one of whom has been flying here from New York every week.

Friday Ranker had his first case of 1952. It was an intoxication charge against the same Albert Richards. In each instance the punishment had been a fine of $25 and costs, but Squire Ranker said there would be a jail sentence if it happens again in 1953.

Interest Boost Faces Uncle Sam

Increase Demanded
By His Creditors

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Interest rates on mortgages and on bank loans to business are slowly rising, but Uncle Sam is still hoping to hold down the interest he must pay on the huge federal debt.

The people he borrows the money from—the banks, insurance companies, and other private investors—have been clamoring for the treasury to issue long-term bonds paying more than the present interest rate of 2½ per cent.

But the federal debt now tops $259 billion. Annual interest payment totals on it are already high. And any raise in interest rates would increase the burden on the taxpayers by that much more. The treasury, therefore, is hoping to hold the interest rate at its present level.

Private borrowers aren't so lucky. Banks now charge 3 per cent on prime commercial loans. This is twice what business firms with the highest credit ratings had to pay the banks in the 1935-47 period before interest rates started their slow climb.

CORPORATE bond prices have dropped, too, so the yield on them is rising gradually. And corporations seeking to sell new securities to the public have had to offer higher interest rates than they did a few years ago when there was more money around in relation to the growing demand for it. Business firms are borrowing record amounts to expand plants and finance ever-costlier business operations.

Too many investors have been turning to the stock market. With common stock prices rising since the war, the yield from them has been more attractive to many investors than the interest rates the government or corporations were offering on their securities.

But the treasury has so far held to its policy of keeping its own interest payments on long-term bonds down to 2½ per cent. The treasury has been turning more and more to short-term borrowing—for three months or a year—at much lower rates, of course, than 2½ per cent. When an issue of long-term bonds has come up for redemption, the treasury has been refunding it with more of these short-term issues. This holds down the total it must pay out in a year on its debt.

But it hasn't gone entirely scot-free, because it hasn't been able to hold the interest rates down on the short-term borrowing.

ON ITS 91-DAY treasury bills it was paying 1.08 per cent two years ago. Now it has to pay 1.88 per cent in order to sell these bills to the banks and other investors.

But Uncle Sam—with $33.5 billion redeemable this year—is still sticking to the policy of holding his long-term rate to 2½ per cent. The treasury is expected to refund these issues with short-term paper. How high a rate he'll have to pay on them will depend on money conditions at the time of issue.

Federal Civilian Payroll Increases

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(INS)—The Senate Economy Committee said Saturday that the federal civilian payroll increased by 4,951 in November, due to military agency expansions and special Christmas postoffice help.

"White-collar" employment showed a net decrease from the October figure in all agencies except for the Postoffice Department.

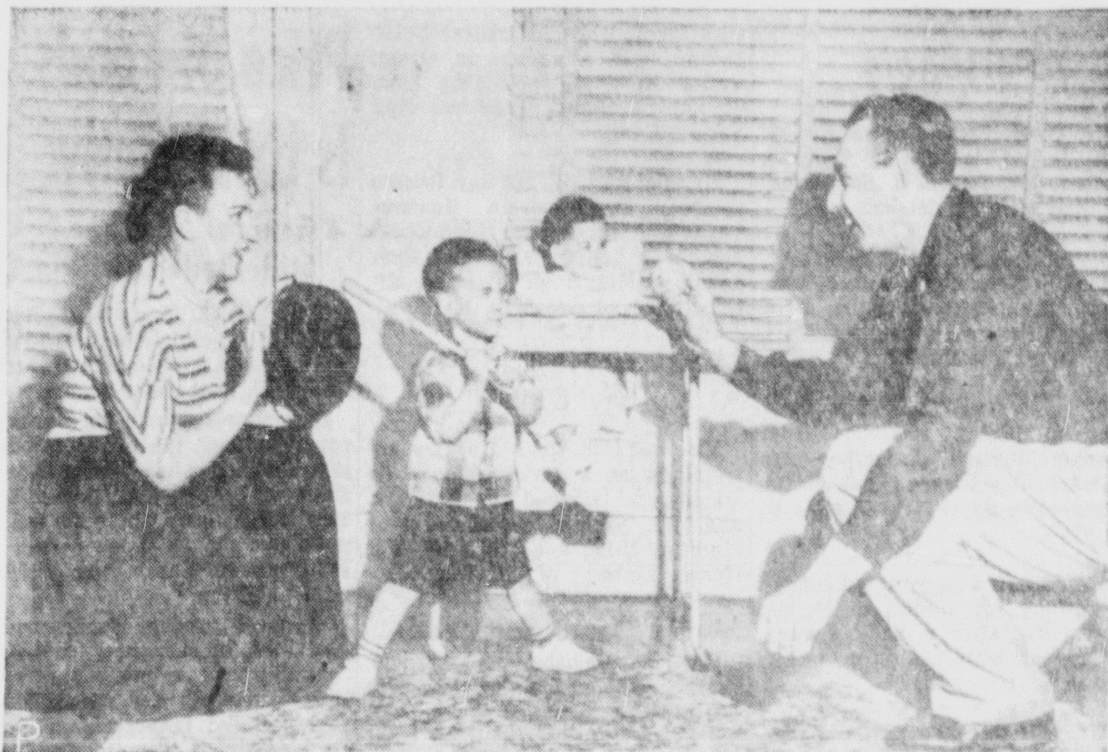

Most of the over-all personnel increase came from adding industrial employees in the military agencies.

Office of Secretary of State No Longer Path to Presidency

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—No one knows better than Secretary of State Acheson that his job is not a good one if you want to win a popularity contest.

Once upon a time becoming secretary of state was like joining a gym to get in shape for the presidency. But one of our most eminent historians, Dr. Douglas Southall Freeman, doubts it will happen again.

Dr. Freeman, who has written extensively on Robert E. Lee and his lieutenants and now is publishing a huge life of George Washington, says:

"In the first seven decades of government under the Constitution of 1787, six of the 15 Presidents had been secretary of state under some other chief executive.

"Since James Buchanan, who served with Polk, no secretary of state has become President, though at least half a dozen have sought, and several have won nomination.

"For the future, the probability is that the office will not have a corridor leading to the presidency. The unpopular nature of much that a secretary of state must do in an era of inflated passions may destroy his political 'availability.'

"His duties, in addition, are going to absorb his energies so completely that he will not have time for building fences. More fundamentally, the qualities of mind demanded of a competent secretary of state must be so highly special-

Industrial Might Of Ohio Is Cited

Supply of Labor
Called Adequate

COLUMBUS, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Ohio has an "adequate" labor supply despite demands of a growing defense production program.

State Industrial Relations Director Albert A. Woldman released the department's new manufacturer's directory with 600 pages of statistical data on Ohio workers and manufacturers.

The directory, compiled from questionnaires received from 11,699 manufacturing firms, includes 1950 data about hourly wage rates, total number of employed men and women in manufacturing, and a classification of manufacturers by major product and by county.

Statistics for 1951 are not available at this time.

Woldman said: "Ohio's defense production workers are hammering out the destiny of the free world on the anvils and forges of the state's industrial plants."

He estimated that more than one-third of Ohio's working men and women are employed in factories.

Daytonian Enters Presidential Race

DAYTON, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Paul Kliever, 35-year-old soft drink factory worker, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President.

The six-foot, blond, Kliever came to Dayton three months ago from California, where he said he had been an organizer for St. Paul's Missionary Co. His platform:

1. Concentrate on a high level of employment at home as opposed to a policy of foreign intervention.
2. Education for all at all levels.
3. Return more of the money earned from factories and farms for expansion and rehabilitation.
4. Bring God into public life.

SOME 1,192,928 Ohio manufacturing workers received $4,067,653,991 in wages during 1950, the directory reports. A breakdown shows of the total workers, 943,234 were men, and 248,794 were women.

The report listed 528,886 workers, about half the total, employed by only 16 per cent of the manufacturing establishments. But 84 per cent of the 11,669 reporting firms employed under 100 persons regularly, accounting for only 16 per cent of the total employment.

According to the hourly wage figures, more than three-fourths (904,059) of the workers received between $1 and $2 an hour for their labor. Ten per cent were paid under $1 an hour. More than 13 per cent (157,539) received more than $2 an hour.

Ohio's factories range in size from small shops employing only a few workers to plants with 10,000 to 20,000 employees. There were 2,276 firms employing under five persons.

Largest single category was in the 10-24 employee group with 2,508 factories listed. Some 184 firms employed more than 1,000 persons each.

Eight manufacturing centers employed more than 50,000 workers each.

These, ranged in the order of workers employed, are Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton, Youngstown, Akron, Toledo, Canton and Columbus.

Eight counties, Allen, Butler, Clark, Columbiana, Lorain, Muskingum, Richland and Scioto, have more than 10,000 manufacturing workers each.

Mink Farmers Unhappy Over Scandal Stories

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP)—American mink farmers say the mink coat publicity bobbing up in the government scandals is hurting their $100 million-a-year industry.

They said stories about political figures involved in the scandals buying mink coats—or getting them as gifts—has put an "unjust stigma" on their product.

Mrs. McIntosh Is Hostess to Club Members

Members of the Bloomingburg Kensington Club met at the home of the president, Mrs. Edgar McIntosh for the regular January meeting.

The hostess home was beautifully decorated with arrangements of flowers and were gifts on the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, which was an event of Thursday.

The meeting opened with the singing of the hymn, "What A Friend" and Mrs. McIntosh conducted the devotions, which included three short articles pertaining to prayer, "What Can We Do About Worry?", "A Child's View" and "Beginning School With Prayer," with the praying of the Lord's Prayer closing this period.

The usual reports were heard and a special report of five comforts completed by the club and turned over to the Red Cross for distribution to needy families and another comfort sent to a Bloomingburg resident who is ill, was also made.

It was also decided to send a shower of cards to Mrs. Emma Swiss, a member who now resides in Mansfield, on her birthday.

The program following consisted of readings, "Spreading Cheer" by Mrs. Florence Evans, "Hawaiian Orchids," by Mrs. Lucile Creaht, "No Such A Thing As Luck" by Mrs. Anna Larimer, "The Wood rose," by Mrs. Walter P. Noble, "Gardenia," by Beverly Evans, a group of recitations by Sandra Evans and closed with the club benediction.

During the social hour Mrs. McIntosh was assisted by Mrs. Lewis Evans in the serving of refreshments.

Sandra and Beverly Evans were included as guests.

Musical Given At Willis Home

A delightful musical was given Sunday afternoon by a few students in the advanced piano class of Mrs. Robert E. Willis at her home on Van Deman Avenue.

These monthly, informal events presented to a limited number of guests are entirely impromptu.

An interesting discussion of music in the 17th century and the history of the life of George Frederick Handel, was led by Mrs. Willis and piano numbers were given by Misses Joyce Bandy, Linda Lovell, Jane Anne McCoy, Beverly Baughn, Mila Weatherly, Jo Davis of this city and Joy Strausbaugh of Chillicothe.

The program closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne," by the group and David Foster as host assisted Mrs. Willis in the serving of dainty refreshments from an attractively appointed tea table, with Misses Linda Lovell, Jo Davis and Faye Ann Sagar also assisting in the hospitalities.

Sept. 20 Marriage Is Announced

Rev. and Mrs. Harold B. Twining, 1305 Bryden Road, Columbus, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mary Evelyn, to Mr. Pat Frissora, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Frissora, 1213 22nd Avenue, Columbus.

The ceremony took place at 10:30 A. M., September 20, and the bride's father performed the ceremony at his home.

The bride chose the traditional white for her wedding gown, fashioned of slipper satin, ballerina length, with tiers of Chantilly lace and tulle forming the skirt, and the yoke of the bodice was illusion.

PARTY LOOK—Is given to this New York maternity dress of gold and black printed tulle and black faille, designed in misses sizes by Stork Style. The bright jacket top is edged with black braid around the collar and neckline tabs, and on the sleeve cuffs, and fastens with small jet buttons. The skirt, eased with little hemline side slits, has a button-flap adjusted waistline.

She wore mitts of shirred tulle, and her shoulder length veil was held in place with a matching Chantilly lace cap and carried a bouquet of snow white roses, arranged with feathered chrysanthemums.

Miss Twining attended Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and Ohio State University, and is associated with the Farm Bureau Insurance Company in Columbus.

Mr. Frissora attended Ohio State University, and will be leaving January 15, with 37th Division of the Armed Forces.

The couple is living at 1307 Bryden Road.

The Twining were former residents of this city, where the bride was graduated from high school, and Rev. Twining was pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Garden Club Holds Meeting At McCoy Home

Mrs. Ben McCoy was hostess at the January meeting of the Twin Oaks Garden Club at her home in Good Hope.

Mrs. Loren C. Johnson, president, presided over the business session and roll call was responded to with the naming of a favorite house plant.

Mrs. Thomas Braden read an interesting paper entitled "The Care of House Plants" and in her discussion it was brought out that charcoal is an excellent purifier for potted soil and plants should be watered regularly but not too often.

Mrs. Braden named several good house plants including various species of ivy, African Violets and philodendron.

Other house plants may be the various kinds of bulbs such as iris and narcissus and these may be started in pebbles and water by putting them in a dark place and allowing them to sprout before being exposed to light.

She also told of the feeding of African violets but stressed the point of not over feeding them.

Pictures of house plants started from fruits and vegetables were on display to illustrate her talk and were discussed later by the members.

Reminders for the month were read by Mrs. Charles Beoddy and the meeting was adjourned.

Tempting refreshments were served by the hostess during the social hour and she was assisted by Mrs. Wilbur Hoppes.

Price of Foods Is Up Slightly

General Average Still Under Ceiling

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Retail prices of several important food items pushed a little higher in this first week of the new year.

Butter rose two to six cents a pound in most places as production declined when storms slowed shipment of cream. Some beef cuts, particularly prime rib roasts, were marked up a few cents in many stores. Lamb and chicken edged higher.

In fresh produce departments, potatoes, onions, new cabbage, cauliflower, celery, radishes, sweet potatoes and citrus fruits—especially tangerines—all averaged higher. Tomatoes and lettuce, though about unchanged from last week, continued relatively high.

Retailers said canned milk probably would advance a penny or two within the next couple of weeks, reflecting higher costs for fluid milk.

Eggs led the small number of foods running counter to the up-trend this week, dropping two to six cents a dozen in major store chains and independents. Production is on the seasonal upswing now and trade sources report that a 2 to 4 per cent increase in laying flocks should soon put additional pressure on egg prices.

Cucumbers and peppers were about the only fresh vegetables generally lower this week.

MOST STORES held their fresh and smoked ham prices at the special pre-New Year's Day levels, but otherwise their meat features varied from sliced bacon and frankfurters to pork loin roasts, leg of lamb and Wisconsin geese. Other advertised leaders: Frozen halibut steaks, frying chickens, canned pork and beans and canned hash, oatmeal, split peas, dried prunes, graham crackers, fresh string beans, carrots and oranges.

Food market observers reported that processors' holdings of canned tomatoes and corn in both the East and Midwest are unusually light, indicating that somewhat higher prices for those items may be on the way in the next several months.

Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle said a 2,000-store survey over

3 County Cage Teams Play Tuesday Night

Basketball is swinging back in to high gear here now after the holiday layoff.

Teams representing Good Hope, Madison Mills, New Holland and Washington C. H., all were in action last Friday night and Bloomingburg's Bulldogs won at South Charleston, 67 to 63, Saturday night at South Charleston.

Jeffersonville's Tigers, who have had the longest holiday recess of all the county schools, will not go into inter-school action until next Friday when they meet Bloomingburg's title contenders.

The Tigers, however, are to warm up Tuesday night with a polo fund benefit game with the Jeffersonville alumni. When the Tigers took on the Old Grads Nov. 6, they handed them a 48 to 39 defeat.

TUESDAY NIGHT. Bloomingburg's Bulldogs are to tangle with the Bulldogs at New Holland. The game was scheduled for Bloomingburg, but was shifted because the new gym there is not completed yet.

Two other Fayette County school teams also have games booked for Tuesday night—Good Hope's Mad Anthony's will go Atlanta in quest of revenge for the 48-43 defeat handed them on their own floor Dec. 11, and the Millers of Madison Mills are to take a trip to Monroe in Pickaway County.

Friday night, the boys from Ashland are to tangle with the Lions in the WHS gymnasium.

The Lions, exuberant after taking the lead in the SCO League scramble with an upset defeat of Greenfield's Tigers last Friday night, today were chafing at the bit as they prepared for the Ashland game.

The Lions have won only two of the six games they have played this season—but both victories were from SCO League teams, Circleville 46 to 39, and Greenfield 51 to 47. Their defeats were all at the hands of non-league opponents.

Not one of the WHS games this season has been a walk-away for either team. In none was the final outcome certain until the last few minutes.

New Class C Loop Awaits Sixth Team

COLUMBUS, Jan. 7 — (P)—Five baseball teams of the Class A Central League and Class D Ohio-Indiana League are ready to form a new Class C circuit, but they need a sixth team.

At a meeting here Sunday, Charleston, W. Va., and Dayton, O., of the Central League, and Lima, Zanesville and Richmond, Ind., of the O-I League said they are ready to join the new circuit, to be called the Midwestern League.

But Frank M. Colley, president of the O-I League, said the new loop couldn't operate with only five teams. He gave Springfield, Newark and Marion of the O-I League until Jan. 20 to decide whether to join.

Colley said if one more team joins the new league will be organized here Jan. 27.

Under present plans, Lima, Richmond and Zanesville would operate without major league affiliation. Charleston, owned by the Cincinnati Reds, was represented at the meeting by Bill McKechnie, while Dayton, property of the St. Louis Browns, was represented by Rudie Schaffer.

Janowicz Shines In Hawaii Game

HONOLULU, Jan. 7—(INS)—Vic Janowicz is enjoying the hero role again just as he did in 1950 when he earned nationwide recognition as one of college football's greats.

Reverting to the stellar form seen rarely last season at Ohio State, Janowicz copped the spotlight in Sunday's Hula Bowl by aerializing four touchdown passes to give his mates a 41-40 victory over the Hawaii Stars in Honolulu.

Andersons Lead Mixed Bowling

Tourney Conclusion Set for Next Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Anderson today were out in front after the first half of the double-weekend mixed doubles bowling tournament was rolled off Sunday at Bowland.

Their 1616 total gave them a 14-pin lead over John Speakman and Judy Waekman, who took over second place by a wide margin over third placers, Bob Carman and Verna Williams.

Sixteen couples rolled in the first half of the tourney. Sixteen more are to take the alleys at 7 P. M., next Sunday to complete the tourney.

The tourney is a handicap event based on individual past performances, designed to place all the teams on the same level.

There are still a few openings in next Sunday's lineup, the manager said. Under the rules, bowlers who rolled in the first half may come back for another crack at the awards, but the return must be with a different partner.

Here is the way the finished in the first round:

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Anderson 1616, Speakman-Waekman 1602, Carmen-Williams 1549, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schahat 1540, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shobe 1539, Lawrence-Graves 1534, Mr. and Mrs. Winifred 1527, Mr. and Mrs. Gene McLean 1521, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shepard 1492, Mr. and Mrs. E. ## High School Football Code Now Adopted

CHICAGO, Jan. 7—(INS)—New rules adopted by the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations meeting in Chicago are aimed at reducing confusion in school football games.

The federation's football committee has revised the code for next season on substitutions. Now a substitute player must stay in the game and the replaced player stay out for at least one play.

The committee said the new proviso will eliminate a practice by some coaches of yanking, briefing and sending back a key player within the 25 seconds allowed between plays.

The penalty for a coach "roaming" from his prescribed area on the field has been reduced from 15 yards to five yards because it is felt the milder penalty will result in a more frequent calling of the rule.

Another new regulation rules against a team captain changing his choice on an option once it has been given to an official.

UNDER A changed fair catch rule, any player on the receiving team can signal for a fair catch—not just the receiving player.

Another rule change states that the right of a receiving team to possession of the ball at the point where it is touched by a member of the kicking team may be cancelled if a member of the receiving team tries to run with the ball.

A rule passed for 1953 enforcement calls for only two stripes on a football used in night play instead of the two, three or more stripes at each end used in the past by some coaches.

The committee said the new rule eliminates an optical illusion often presented by an over-striped ball for the receivers when it has been kicked in a wobbly fashion.

Maureen Connolly Is 'Woman Athlete Of Year' in Poll

NEW YORK, Jan. 7—(P)—Energetic Maureen Connolly, the second youngest player ever to win the national tennis championship, has been chosen Woman Athlete of the Year for 1951 in the annual Associated Press poll.

The applecheeked, blue-eyed blonde from San Diego, who captured the tennis crown at Forest Hills just 12 days before her 17th birthday, beat out Florence Chadwick, the English Channel swimmer, and Mrs. Mildred Babe Didrikson Zaharias, a five-time winner in these yearly polls.

Little Mo received 81 first place votes out of the 206 cast by sports writers and sportscasters from coast to coast and a total of 366 points. Miss Chadwick, the attractive ex-steno from San Diego who now is the swimming pro at the Grossinger (N.Y.) Country Club, was second with 287 points and 57 first place nominations. Mrs. Zaharias, leading money winner among the female golf swingers and named Woman Golfer of the Year, was third with 258 points and 47 first places.

FAR BEHIND big three leading candidates came:

4—Golfers Patty Berg, a two-time winner of the poll, 37; 5—Golfers Betsy Rawls, 25; Diving Champion Pat McCormick, 23; Bowling Champion Marion Ladewig, and Tennis Ace Doris Hart, 18 each; Tennis Star Nancy Chaffee and Golfer Dot Kirby, 11 each; Golfers Beverly Hanson and Marlene Bauer, 10 each, and Golfer Louise Suggs, 9.

Miss Bauer was voted Female Athlete of the Year in 1949 when she was 15, the youngest ever to win the award.

Suggs Wins $750 In Women's Golf

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 7—(INS)—Louise Suggs of Carrollton, Ga., carried home the first prize money of $750 for her victory in the 54-hole Jacksonville Women's Open Golf Tournament.

The 118-pound miss fired a final round 79, three over par, for a 227 total that still placed her one under par for the tourney.

Miss Suggs was seven strokes ahead of the second finisher, Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., who carded a 234. Babe Zaharias and Marlene Bauer tied for third with 236s.

Bloomington Wins From So. Charleston

Bloomington's Bulldogs continued their winning ways with a 67 to 63 victory over South Charleston on the Charleston court Saturday evening.

The Bulldog Reserves weren't as lucky. They lost their first game of the season to the South Charleston Reserves, 58 to 38, in the opener.

After trailing in the opening quarter, 18 to 12, the Bulldogs snapped back in the second stanza with 25 points, while holding their hosts to nine.

From the intermission on the game was tough and go with both teams just about coming out even in the third frame.

Although the South Charleston team never headed the Bulldogs, they were at times within one or two points of tying up the score. They put on a drive in the closing seconds, but the visitors were able to hold on to a four point lead until the end of the game.

Robert Weaver, back in at the Bulldogs center slot, was high scorer with 23 points. Salyers and Baker of South Charleston tied for high with 18 points each.

Bloomington's next game will be Tuesday evening at New Holland. The game was originally scheduled for Bloomington's new gym, but the floor hasn't been laid as yet.

College Football Has Its Problems For Wrangles at Cincinnati Confab

CINCINNATI, Jan. 7 — (P)—A flock of potential headaches was piled on the agenda as preliminary sessions started Monday for the 46th annual convention of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The remedies—if found at all—won't be considered until later in the week, but the pains started even before the NCAA delegates arrived.

In fact, some of them, notably that concerning the televising of football games, have been going on for many months.

Some of the others concerned post-season athletic contests, principally bowl football games; aid to athletes; out-of-season football and basketball practice—to have or not to have; and proposals to give the NCAA greater authority over its members.

In addition, it was a cinch the college basketball gambling scandals and the question of de-emphasis of sports were certain to have at least unofficial places on the program.

MEANWHILE in Washington, ten college presidents buckled down to the tough chore of writing a strict code for intercollegiate athletics.

They hope to complete their job by nightfall. But exactly what they have written down—which may have a far-reaching effect on college sports—won't be made public immediately.

Their tentative conclusion: No football games after the last Saturday in November or, possibly, the first Saturday in December. They still must decide which day they prefer, but either way they go, it would mean the end of post-season football bowl games if their recommendations are accepted.

Other decisions: They felt freshmen should not play on varsity teams, that "lavish entertainment" should be prohibited as a way of attracting prize high school athletes, and that college players should take the same courses as other students and keep up with their classes.

This hemispherical combustion chamber, with big, well-cooled valves right in its dome-shaped top, is the revolutionary reason FirePower outperforms all previous engines... even on non-premium-grade gas!

YOU'LL HAVE TO DRIVE A Chrysler to learn the great difference the mighty new Chrysler V-8 engine has brought about! No words can ever tell you its magnificent response to your wish, the wonderful sense of its power in reserve, the complete new command of travel it lets you feel... and all of this on non-premium grade gas! We invite you to try this engine... and also discover the new safety and ease of America's first hydraulic power steering and Chrysler power brakes... at your early convenience!

Lausche Silent About His Plans

Governor Keeps Politicians Guessing

COLUMBUS, Jan. 7.—(P)—Much to the consternation of some newsmen, Gov. Frank J. Lausche has not changed in one respect.

He runs shut-mouth when it comes to making official announcement as to whether (a) he will run for reelection, (b) he will run for John Bricker's seat in the U. S. Senate, or (c) not run for any office.

Lausche usually waits until the last moment to declare his intentions. In 1950, he announced on Jan. 3 that he would seek a third term.

This year he is delaying his announcement even longer to the concern of potential candidates for governor or senator. Most of them want to see what Lausche does so they can run without opposing his vote-getting magic.

The deadline for candidate filing with the secretary of state is Feb. 6. That's little enough time for candidates to get the required number of signatures to petitions—something that doesn't worry Lausche.

MOST OF LAUSCHE'S friends think he will seek an unprecedented fourth term as governor. Some feel he may declare for the U. S. Senate. All concede him the nomination he seeks. But Lausche runs shut-mouth.

So far, only Joseph Torok of Youngstown has announced for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Torok, connected with the grocery business, unsuccessfully opposed Lausche twice before.

Prof. Henry M. Busch of Western Reserve university took out petitions for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator. But he said in Cleveland he hadn't made up his mind definitely to run. He may be waiting for a Lausche announcement.

Busch ran third for the nomination in 1950 behind State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson, who lost the election to Republican Sen. Robert A. Taft.

Taft is running for the Republican presidential nomination this year and Ferguson is after a fifth, four-year term as auditor.

Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle, former Toledo mayor, is reported poised for the Democratic race for governor or senator, depending on Lausche's decision. He ran second to Ferguson for the senatorial nomination in 1950. DiSalle's candidacy also depends on release from his Washington job.

ONE REPORT from Washington quoted DiSalle as saying Lausche had decided to run for senator. It wasn't confirmed. Another report said Lausche had tried to induce Mayor Thomas A. Burke of Cleveland to run for senator. That also lacked confirmation.

Burke said before his recent reelection as mayor that he would serve out his term if he won. Lausche conferred with Burke in Cleveland last week. He talked with DiSalle in Columbus last month. Lausche was in Washington Monday for a civil defense meeting. But he said he had no plans to see DiSalle again while there.

BY RAY BRANDENBURG

We hear the cost of courtship, like everything else, has gone up like a fireman on a ladder. This should give some smart politician an idea to promote a subsidy for financially embarrassed wooers. Young Romeos might even form a lobby to go to Washington to plead their case, except that to do so they'd have to organize... and there's nothing more disorganized than a young lover. Actually, I guess there's no quick solution. Love may laugh at locksmiths, but a headwaiter is something else again. "I Can't Give You Anything But Love" may be a great melody, but it's apt to wind up as a solo.

A belated word of commendation to Dr. Piersick and his Legion associates for the grand Christmas party they held for over one hundred and fifty kids at the Legion Hall. The ladies prepared a lunch and Santa came, and what a time. Can those kids sing. Do you good to hear them. Each one was presented with a nice gift and went home happy. To all those who gave hours and hours of their time and ability repairing, painting and organizing the party I give my fullest praise. This is truly exemplifying the true spirit of Christmas by giving and not expecting anything in return.

Boys you did a grand job and I'm certain the joy you felt for having done it, will amply repay you.

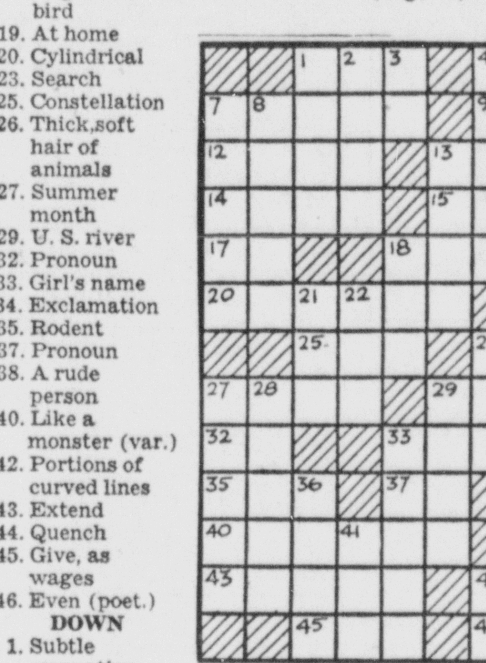

Well, here we are into a New Year. Are you still writing 1951 on your letters... or are you one of those geniuses who can keep up with the times? We've never quite made the ranks of the geniuses, but we've made a world of friends by treating our customers the way we like to be treated. In '52 we intend to keep all our old friends and make some new ones. R. BRANDENBURG MOTOR SALES, INC., 524 Clinton Ave. Phone 2575.

Miners To Return To Disaster Scene

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., Jan. 7

—(P)—"You must forget—you can't sit back, even after a disaster like this."

The words are those of Sherman Whitlow, president of the United Mine Workers' local union which lost 119 members in that tragic pre-Christmas coal mine explosion. Like the others who escaped the Dec. 21 blast, Whitlow is ready to go back to work in Orient No. 2 as soon as it reopens.

"Sure, it will be a long time before we get over it, but they'll all go back," Whitlow said. "It's in their blood."

Mayor C. Edwin Hair of nearby Benton put it a little stronger. He said:

"Yes, the miners will all go back. In fact, there will be two applicants for every vacancy created by the explosion."

Weichel Endorsed

FREMONT, Jan. 7.—(P)—The Sandusky County Republican Committee has endorsed Alvin F. Weichel for re-election as 13th district representative. The 13th consists of Erie, Lorain, Sandusky and Huron Counties.

Fair Directors Here To Attend State Meeting

Fayette Countians Given Important Part in Convention

Twelve of the 13 directors of the Fayette County Fair today had cleared the decks of their own affair preparatory to spending most of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the annual meeting of the Ohio Fair Managers Association in Columbus at the Deshler-Wallick Hotel.

And, by this time next week, much of the entertainment program—special attractions, concessions, midway and the like—will probably be pretty well set.

For, it is at the OFMA convention that the directors of Ohio's county fairs get in touch with the booking agents, the concessionaires and advance men for the shows to see what they have to offer.

If the past is any indication of the future, contracts for many of the top features for next summer's fair will be completed before the directors leave for home late Thursday night.

This is the plan that has been followed out by the board here for years. It also is the general pattern of the procedure followed by virtually all other fair boards in the state.

ONE OF THE highlights of the convention oddly enough has no official connection with it although it comes at the same time and place. It is the election Tuesday of a director for the United States Trotting Association (USTA).

This year, McKinley Kirk of Washington C. H., is a candidate for one of the state-district directors. The other is G. W. Rittenour of Waverly, the incumbent whose term expires this year.

Kirk has almost solid backing of the horsemen of this horse county. And, because of the prominent place Fayette County holds in the world of harness horse racing, he is expected to get firm support.

One Fayette County horseman put it this way: "I'm going to vote for Kirk because he's a good man and because I think Fayette County should be represented on the board, but Rittenour is a good man, too. My vote will be one for Kirk, but not against Rittenour." Kirk, a retiring sort of man, has not been pushing himself. Some of his friends, however, have been making a fairly active campaign in his behalf.

MEMBERS OF THE Fayette County Fair Board have been assigned several important parts in the OFMA convention.

Frank E. Ellis, secretary of the board, is to preside at the speed department conference Wednesday afternoon. Other members of the speed committee here who will attend the conference are John Sagar, George A. Steen, the chairman, and G. Damon Baker.

Ellis also is to make the report on that conference when reports of eight other department meetings are made Wednesday afternoon. These reports are to be made before the full assembly of fair managers.

Ray Brandenburg, president of the board here, is to address the convention on the subject of "The Value of the Fair to Farm Life" later Wednesday evening.

Many of the directors and others from here expect to be accompanied by their wives. Most of them are planning to drive back and forth from their homes here, but some have made reservations to remain for the entire three-day gathering.

Each of the dozen directors is planning to attend the special meetings that have to do with the departments with which they are connected in the Fair here.

Sam Marting, who heads the livestock department here, is the only one of the directors from here who will be missing. He is in Des Moines for a Hereford show and sale at which he is the judge.

MEMBERS OF THE Fayette County board are Brandenburg, president; Ellis, secretary; Walter Sollars, vice president; Harry Silcott, treasurer; Sagar; Steen; Preston Dray; Mac Dews; Robert Cannon; Baker; H. H. Denton and Ralph Nisley.

Under the plan followed here, each of the directors heads one or more Fair departments.

Although they will not participate officially in the convention procedure, two of the commissioners, Clifford E. Hughes and Homer Miller, are planning to attend. Ralph Minton, the third member, said he would be unable to attend this year.

County Auditor Ulric Acton, Engineer C. B. Wagner, County Agent W. W. Montgomery and Associate County Agent Albert Cobb also have significant intentions of attending the convention's main meetings.

Willard Bitzer, superintendent of the sheep department of the Fair, is also planning to be there for the discussion of livestock exhibits.

Mrs. Ida Sollars Dies at Her Home

Mrs. Ida M. Sollars, 75, died at her home on the Hays Road in Paint Township at 5:15 o'clock Monday morning. She had been in failing health for more than a year and had been seriously ill for the past six months.

A resident of this community for the past five years, she was born in Ross county and was a member of the Nippen (Ross County) Church of Christ in Christian Union Church.

Besides her husband, she leaves four sisters, Mrs. Charles Bowers of Richmond, Mrs. Maggie Allen Loveland, Mrs. Ella Kinne of Washington C. H. and Mrs. Emma Smeltzer of the Jeffersonville Road and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2 P. M. Wednesday at the Gerstner Funeral Home, with Rev. Russell Knisley in charge.

Burial will be made in the family lot of the Bloomingburg Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 o'clock Monday evening.

Officers Make Several Arrests

Police, the patrol and Sheriff Orland Hays made a series of arrests over the week-end, including two cases of driving while intoxicated.

Two men listed for driving while intoxicated were Louis Thompson Ormes, of Washington C. H., picked up by the police and Ray Cartwright, 27, Sabina, arrested by the highway patrol.

Clarence D. Hartzler, Columbus, posted $15 bond on a speeding charge, and Alice J. Grossnikalus, clocked at 75 miles, furnished $15 bail for appearance in municipal court.

Oliver C. Smith, of the Lewis Road, furnished $50 bond after having been arrested for assault and battery, filed by Ethel Smith.

James A. Eberhart, for driving 75 miles an hour, drew a charge of speeding, and he posted $15 bond.

Gertrude K. Hobson, Columbus, also furnished bond of $15 on a speeding charge.

Special Services

A series of revival meetings were started at the Church of God, Harrison and Newberry streets on Sunday, with Rev. C. M. Washington of Georgetown, Ill., as the evangelist.

This week he will preach on the Seven Churches of Asia. He spoke on the first of the seven churches on Sunday night.

The Green Sisters of Richmond, Va. and local choir are furnishing the singing. The services start at 7:30 o'clock each night.

Weather Puts Crimp in '51 School Schedule

Several Days Lost During Storm but Make-up Not Planned

County high schools in Fayette County generally have decided not to cut down Easter vacations or keep students around longer at the end of the school term to make up time lost during the period of inclement weather before the Christmas holidays.

This was revealed Monday morning after a series of telephone calls to each of the superintendents of each rural high school. It was brought out that the various school boards have the authority to keep the schools open extra days to make up the lost time, but as yet none of the boards have taken action along this line.

COUNTY SUPT. W. J. HILTY said Monday that the state department of education looks on the time lost during the period of snow-clogged roads and freezing cold as being due to an "act of God."

And Supt. Hilty said that the department doesn't as a rule require that the time be made up, although the individual boards of education have authority to order the time made up.

The period of inclement weather included snow which blocked many of the rural roadways Dec. 17. Throughout that week rural schools had difficulty hauling students on school buses.

Jeffersonville High School closed down all week; Madison Mills, for three days, and Good Hope, for four days, and Bloomingburg, for a few days during the week.

The Jeffersonville, Madison Mills and Good Hope superintendents said they do not plan to hold extra days of class to make up the time lost. The superintendent at Bloomingburg said he would abide by the decision of the county superintendent.

THE SCHOOL superintendents said they planned to have students concentrate harder on their studies during the 1952 semester so that students would have a chance to make up work lost during the period before Christmas, since they merely added the time to their Christmas and New Year's vacations.

But the youths saw most of their Christmas programs cancelled or postponed until after the holidays.

One of the last Christmas programs to be presented will be given by Good Hope students at 8 o'clock Monday night (tonight) in the Wayne Hall. The play was postponed from Dec. 19.

School will be dismissed May 23, according to the present schedule. The dismissal date is set early to start work on spring crops as soon as possible.

Ernest N. Fout Services Held

Funeral services for Ernest Norman Fout were held at the Methodist Church in Buena Vista, on Sunday at 2 P. M., and were conducted by Rev. F. M. Moon.

Rev. Moon was assisted by Rev. Joseph James, who read the Scriptures and offered prayer.

Rev. Moon offered prayer, read a memoir, paid a personal tribute to Mr. Fout and delivered the sermon.

Mrs. John Corzatt and Miss Irene Binegar sang the hymns, "In The Garden," "Beautiful Garden of Prayer" and "Good Night." Mrs. Lois Jett was at the piano, and also played the prelude and postlude.

Burial was made in Pleasant Hill Cemetery at Leesburg.

The pallbearers were: Dennis Hawk, Robert Case, John Corzatt, C. C. Eakins, J. O. Wilson and Roy Rodgers.

James E. Murphy Dies Late Sunday

James E. Murphy, 79, of Wilmington, died in Clinton Memorial Hospital Sunday night. He had been in failing health for some time.

Mr. Murphy was a brother of Charles Webb Murphy, former owner of the Chicago National League Baseball Club from 1905 to 1914, during which time he served as a scout for his brother.

In 1918, Murphy and his brother Frank, built the Murphy Theater in Wilmington in memory of their brother Charles.

In his home on South Mulberry Street, Mr. Murphy had amassed one of the finest private collections of high class glass, china, and other articles in this part of the United States.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

School Boards Hold Elections

Fred Burr was selected president of the Paint Township school board, and Harry Rife was elected president of the Green Township school board, during recent meetings of those two organizations.

The Green township board met on Wednesday, Jan. 2, for their reorganization. Pierce Miller of near Washington C. H., was elected vice president, and A. C. Zimmerman of near Greenfield, was elected clerk. Board members are: D. E. Morris of near Leesburg; D. E. Vance of near Sabina and Hubert Dowler of near Washington C. H. Rife, the new president, lives near Leesburg.

Raymond Huff of near Jeffersonville, was elected vice president of the Paint Township board during their elections last Dec. 27, and John Hidy of near Jeffersonville, was selected clerk of the board.

Members of the Paint Township board are: Leonard Miller of near Jeffersonville, and Lon Chaffin of near Bloomingburg. Hidy is the clerk.

Mrs. Laura Paul Dies at Her Home

Mrs. Laura Belle Paul, 67, died at 11:20 A. M. Saturday at her home at 1236 Rawlings Street. She had been in failing health for some time, but death came suddenly.

A resident of this city for 40 years, she was married to John Lee Paul, who died four and a half years ago.

Survivors include the following: two sons, Charles of Washington C. H., and Archie of Longview, Wash.; three brothers, Walter, Floyd and Frank Paul, all of Washington C. H.; four sisters, Mrs. Norris Stant of Xenia; Mrs. Lora Ellen Paul of Columbus, Mrs. Golda Coder of Selma and Mrs. Josephine Swift of Muncie, Ind., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 P. M. Tuesday at the Gregg Street Church of Christ in Christian Union, with Rev. Arthur George, pastor, in charge.

Burial will be made in the Washington Cemetery, under the direction of the Gerstner Funeral Home.

Friends may call at the home of Mrs. Paul's son, Charles, 1219 Rawlings Street, at any time.

George W. Ramey Dies at 86 Years

George Wallace Ramey, 86, resident of Fayette County the past 18 months, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Martha Knapp, at 721 Eastern Avenue, on Sunday at 4:45 P. M. He had been ill the past year.

Mr. Ramey came here from Carter County, Ky., 18 months ago. His wife passed away 45 years ago.

In addition to his daughter he is survived by a granddaughter and a great-grandson.

Friends may call at the Parrett Funeral Home at any time.

Services will be held at the funeral home Tuesday at 2 P. M., with Rev. D. E. Caperton, pastor of Mt. Calvary Mission in Millwood, in charge.

GRAND JURY MEETS

LEBANON—The grand jury met today with 30 cases to be considered.

Checks Go Out to Chest Agencies

Perse Harlow, executive-secretary of the Fayette County Community Chest, announced that checks for the first payment of Chest benefits went into the mails Monday to nine participating agencies.

The checks totaled $7,267. A total of $11,270 is to be sent out to the agencies.

Announcement was made that the annual meeting of the Community Chest will be held at 7:30 P. M., Jan. 28, in the Chamber of Commerce office. At that time all the member agencies will be present, and a financial report on the past year's activities will be presented.

Plans for 1952 will also be reported on at the meeting. Five new board members will also be elected.
